IN THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA IN AND FOR CARSON CITY

MICHAEL LITTLE, a Citizen and Taxpayer of Nevada;

Plaintiff,

vs.

THE STATE OF NEVADA; THE NEVADA
GOVERNOR'S OFFICE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT; and STEVEN HILL, in his Official Capacity as Executive Director of The Nevada
Governor's Office of Economic Development;

Defendants.

Case No. 14 OC 00026 1B

Dept. No. I

PLAINTIFF'S NON-OPPOSITION TO THE NEVADA LEGISLATURE'S MOTION TO INTERVENE

Plaintiff, MICHAEL LITTLE, by and through his attorney of record, Joseph F. Becker, of NPRI Center for Justice, hereby files a non-opposition to the Nevada Legislature's Motion to Intervene.

1 Plaintiff welcomes and counsel believes the public will benefit greatly from the insights
2 discoverable by having "the Legislature" in the case.

3 In the years 1992, 1996, and 2000, "the Legislature" stridently maintained that a
4 constitutional amendment (approved by the electorate) was essential to carry out the challenged
5 program. Now, however, despite no change to the relevant constitutional text, the "Legislature"
6 maintains that no such requirement exists. The particulars as to this argument should prove most 7 insightful to that overwhelming percentage of voters who thrice rebuffed just such a program at the 8 ballot box.
